

This aerial photograph shows a portion of Brasília, Brazil, with a focus on the Setor de Mansões de Sobradinho and Sobradinho II. A red boundary outlines a specific area, likely a project site. The map includes labels for 'Córrego São Paulo', 'Córrego Brejo', 'Córrego Lobo', 'DF-325', 'VC-215', and 'Ribeirão Sobradinho'. The map is overlaid with a grid showing coordinates from 194000 to 202000 on the x-axis and 8269000 to 8271000 on the y-axis.

This aerial photograph shows the Sobradinho II area in Brazil. The Rio São Francisco is visible on the left, flowing through the landscape. The image is overlaid with a grid showing coordinates (196000 to 199000 on the x-axis and 000000 to 000120 on the y-axis). Key features include:

- Setor de Mansões de Sobradinho: A residential area on the left side of the image.
- Sobradinho II: A residential area in the center, outlined in yellow.
- Sobradinho: A residential area on the right side, outlined in yellow.
- Rio São Francisco: The river flowing through the landscape, labeled in blue.
- DF-325: A road running diagonally across the top right.
- VC-215: A road running horizontally across the center.
- Red Outline: A large area in the center, outlined in red, which is the focus of the study.
